A revised draft of the regulations is sent herewith.

2. Revised draft regulation 1. On the lines of regulation 1A of the Bombay Trade Unions Regulations, 1927, an extent clause has been added.

3. Revised draft regulation 2. Clause (2) in Labour Department draft is unnecessary in view of section 20 read with section 3(47) of the General Clauses Act, 1897 and has been deleted.

4. Revised draft regulation 3. Applications under section 28H for fresh recognition have also been included in the draft regulation to make it exhaustive. Draft regulation 22 in Labour Department draft has been transposed as clause (2) of regulation 3 and consequential relettering of the forms has been made.

5. Revised draft regulation 11. The revised draft suggested in Labour Department note at page 91 has been incorporated with suitable modification to make it clear that the Court may issue the witness summons on its own motion or on application. The draft regulations do not contain any reference to the process fee to be charged for a witness summons. The necessary provision has therefore been added to the draft regulation.

6. Revised draft regulations 12 and 13. The word "warrant" has been retained as the Labour Courts have under section 28B(2) powers of Civil Courts for enforcing attendance of witnesses and in view of the provisions of section 32(a) and rule 10(3) of Order XVI in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, they would be able to issue warrants.

2. Revised form A. To make this form useful for application for fresh recognition under section 28H, the Labour Department may insert suitable alternative paragraphs in this form or may prescribe a separate form AA for the purpose If a seperate form is prescribed, draft regulation 3(2) will require slight consequential amendment.
